

Texas falls to Stanford, comes up one game short of CWS appearance

BY ZACH SMITH
SPECIAL TO THE KATY TIMES

The Texas Baseball season came to a heartbreaking end last week in California.

The Longhorns battled back from three-run deficits to tie the game twice but lost in walk-off fashion when a pop-up got lost in the lights and fell for the game-winning single in the ninth to give the Cardinal a 7-6 win.

"I don't even know," Outfielder Dylan Campbell told KXAN. It was Mother Nature and the twilight sky, and me and (outfielder Erik Kennedy) couldn't see the ball off the bat," Campbell said. "We have to move forward, I guess. Nothing we can do about it now. It's over."

Texas scored three runs in the fourth inning to tie the game and scored three more runs in the eighth to knot things up again.

But with two on and two out in the bottom of the ninth, the twilight sky in Palo Alto played a factor as a pop fly fell gingerly into the outfield grass surrounded by four Longhorns. "I think everyone lost it," Texas head coach David Pierce said. "I don't think anyone saw it. It was in the heart of the twilight. I'm just disappointed for our team. It's tough to lose like that and it was such a hard-fought game. The guys played their hearts out."

The Longhorns end their season with a 42-22 record and come up one win short of returning to the College World Series for a third-consecutive season.

Texas was not new to coming from behind in this series, scoring five runs in the ninth inning to win Game 1 of the best-of-three Super Regional Series on Saturday night. Stanford won Game 2 8-3 on Sunday.

"It just wasn't meant to be, I guess," Pierce said. "But I couldn't be more proud of the team. From where we started to where we finished they became such a great team."

This was supposed to be a transition year for the Longhorns, who were picked to finish in the bottom half of the Big 12 standings and miss the NCAA Tournament. They won just four of their first 11 games.

But throughout the season, they came together to win a share of the conference regular season conference title and get within one game of the College World Series.

Junior Lucas Gordon became a certified ace, winning Big 12 Pitcher of the Year. He finished the season with a 2.48 ERA, best among Big 12 starters, and a 6-1 record in 14 starts. He struck out 85 hitters in 83.1 innings and held opponents to a .210 batting average.

Junior outfielder Dylan Campbell, meanwhile, set a new Texas and Big 12 record with a 38-game hitting streak that finally came to an end in the first game of the Super Regional on Saturday.

"We have a program that our fans are proud of," Pierce said. "We shattered records last year and shattered records this year. We had tremendous support. It's just sports, and that's what happens. If you don't win a National Championship, the season ends on a loss."
